

Stuart Reilly

SOFTWARE ENGINEER

Flat 2/3, 6 Regent Moray Street, Glasgow, G3 8AQ

07792 348919 | stu@reilly-family.co.uk | themadprofessor | stuart-r-364a1198

A self-motivated, caring individual who applies himself in a professional, efficient manner to all tasks. During my time at COR Solutions, my communication and organisational skills developed in order to provide a professional service to the customers.

Education

University of Glasgow

UNDERGRADUATE COMPUTING SCIENCE BSC

- Obtained A grades in Computing Science, Mathematics and Exploring the Cosmos.

Glasgow, UK

Sept. 2016 - PRESENT

Hitchin Sixth Form Consortium

AQA A-LEVEL MATHEMATICS 6360

- Obtained a B grade

Hitchin, UK

Sept. 2014 - Sept. 2016

Hitchin Sixth Form Consortium

AQA A-LEVEL COMPUTING 2510

- Obtained a B grade

Hitchin, UK

Sept. 2014 - Sept. 2016

Hitchin Sixth Form Consortium

OCR A-LEVEL PHYSICS H185, H558

- Obtained a C grade

Hitchin, UK

Sept. 2014 - Sept. 2016

Skills

Programming Java, Rust, Python

Web Java Spring, Rust Iron, HTML5, Javascript

Software Microsoft Office, Windows, Linux, Repairshopr

Experience

Parc Computer Centre / COR Solutions

JUNIOR TECHNICIAN

- Undertook a wide array of computer repair task for customers of varying complexity.
- Communicated with customers over the telephone and over the counter, about their issues, repair status and payment.
- Carried out routine maintenance of internal and customer computer systems.
- Utilised a range of operating systems and tools to carry out repairs, including Windows 7, Mac OS X and Linux.

Hitchin, UK

Sep 2015 - Jul 2016

Cupris

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT INTERN

- Contribute to a preexisting codebase, following predefined style and programming practices.
- Introduce a new workflow to the platform by implementing a new administrative interface.
- Creating a specification document defining the new workflow and API endpoints.

London, UK

Jul 2016 - Sept 2016