

Stuart Reilly

COMPUTER SCIENCE STUDENT

07792 348919 | stu@reilly-family.co.uk | themadprofessor | stuart-r-354a1198

Summary

A self-motivated, caring individual who applies himself in a professional, efficient manner to all tasks. Arch Linux enthusiast, who loves to customize and tweak his installation, relishing in the chance to fix the system upon breakage. Enjoys learning new tools and technologies, providing new, cleaner and simpler solutions through their use.

Work Experience

Cupris

London, UK

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT INTERN

Jul 2016 - Sep 2016

- Contribute to a preexisting codebase, following predefined style and programming practices, such as Agile Programming.
- Introduce a new workflow to the platform by implementing a new administrative interface.
- Create a specification document, defining the new workflow, API endpoints and security considerations.
- Make use of Vaadin, Spring Boot, Spring Data and Spring Security.

Parc Computer Centre / COR Solutions

Hitchin, UK

JUNIOR TECHNICIAN

Sep 2015 - Jul 2016

- Undertake a wide array of computer repair tasks for customers of varying complexity.
- Direct communication with customers about their issues, repair status and payment.
- Carry out routine maintenance of internal and customer computer systems.
- Utilise a range of operating systems and tools to carry out repairs.

Education

University of Glasgow

Glasgow

UNDERGRADUATE COMPUTING SCIENCE BSc (HONOURS EXPECTED)

Sep. 2016 - Present

- A grades in first year Computing Science, Mathematics and Exploring the Cosmos
- A and B grades in first year Computing Science and Mathematics

Hitchin Sixth Form Consortium

Hitchin

A-LEVEL

Sep. 2014 - Sep 2016

- Computer Science - B
- Mathematics - B
- Physics - C

Skills

Programming	Java, Rust, Javascript, Python, C, Bash, LaTeX
Web	HTML5, CSS3, Javascript, Iron, Spring Web, Actix Web, Bootstrap, NodeJS, Django
Framework	Spring, Express, Iron, Django, Bootstrap, React, Vaadin
Tools	Git, IntelliJ IDEs, VIM
Operating System	Windows 7-10, Mac OS X, Arch Linux, Debian, Ubuntu, CentOS

Extracurricular Activity

Pause Gaming LAN Society

University of Glasgow

CORE MEMBER & PRESIDENT AT 2018/2019

Sep. 2016 - Present

- Pushing the society to update the aging networking infrastructure.
- Interacting with multiple other societies to provide interesting social mixer events.
- Communicating with the Student Representative Council to ensure the society's longevity and continued use of the University's space.